

Paul Nash: 'Land, Sea, Sky'

with David Boyd Haycock

Monday 20 May, 3:30 – 4:30pm

Suggested reading:

- Andrew Causey, Paul Nash: Landscape and the Life of Objects (Lund Humphries, 2013)
- Christopher Baines, Pyramids in England: Paul Nash and the Wittenham Clumps (Bank Lane, 2021)
- David Boyd Haycock, 'Paul Nash' (Tate Publishing, 2002)
- David Boyd Haycock, 'A Crisis of Brilliance: Five Young British Artists and the Great War' (Old Street Publishing, 2009)
- Paul Nash, 'Outline' (Faber & Faber, 1949)

The most extensive collection of Paul Nash's work is in the Tate, but examples of his paintings, watercolours and wood engravings are to be found in most public collections around the UK.

